La salvación de lo bello (Spanish Edition) Byung-Chul Han

Lo pulido, lo liso, lo impecable, son la seña de identidad de nuestra época. Son lo que tienen en común las esculturas de Jeff Koons, los smartphones y la depilación. Estas cualidades ponen en evidencia el actual "exceso de positividad" del que habla Han en otros ensayos, pero que aquí enfoca y desarrolla en el campo del arte y de la estética.

¿Por qué hoy en día gusta tanto "lo pulido"? —se pregunta Han. Porque no daña, no ofrece resistencia. Lo bello digital constituye un espacio pulido y liso de lo igual, un espacio que no tolera ninguna extrañeza, ninguna alteridad, ninguna negatividad.

Lo bello natural se ha atrofiado en lo liso y pulido de lo bello digital. Hoy nos hallamos en una crisis de lo bello en tanto que se lo satina, convirtiéndolo en objeto del «me gusta», en algo arbitrario y placentero, que se mide por su inmediatez y su valor de uso y de consumo.

Pero sin la negatividad del quiebre de lo otro, queda obturado el acceso a lo bello natural y anulada la distancia contemplativa. La belleza es rezagada. No es un brillo momentáneo, sino que alumbra en silencio, y a través de rodeos. A la belleza no se la encuentra en un contacto inmediato. Más bien acontece como reencuentro y reconocimiento.
