Part I. A compilation of such facts relating to our first Stanton ancestor in America, as have been gathered from a multitude of sources, will form a proper introduction to this genealogy and history of his descendants. From the New England Historical and Genealogical Register (vol. ii, p. 113), we learn that January 2, 1635, Thomas Stanton took passage for Virginia in the merchantman Bonaventura, and that he recorded himself as being twenty years old. The ships record shows no other passenger named Stanton. It is certain, therefore, that he came unattended by any relative bearing the same name. There was a John Stanton in Virginia prior to 1635; from 1652 to 1688 there are records of a Eobert Stanton of Dorchester, Mass., and another Eobert Stanton, a Quaker, was a resident of Newport, E. I., prior to 1645. This Eobert of Newport died in 1672, aged 73 years. His descendants are now very numerous in the United States, and many of them are still Friends or Quakers. As Edwin M. Stanton, Lincoln's great Secretary of War, has been thought by many to be a descendant of Thomas, I will state here that he is in direct line from Eobert of Newport.
