Curious George Home Run (CGTV Early Reader) (Green Light Readers Level 1) H. A. Rey

George is excited to go to his first baseball game to watch his friend Marco play. While Marco concentrates on hitting his first home run, George gets to play scorekeeper. But George doesn't know in which order he should hang the numbers. With help from Marco and the girl at the snack stand, George learns about number sequence and a handy trick for putting double digits in order. During the last inning, George agrees to be a pinch runner for an injured Marco. Will he be able to add another number to the scoreboard?

Includes rules of the game and a score-keeping activity.

Kristen Hancock:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Curious George Home Run (CGTV Early Reader) (Green Light Readers Level 1) can make you really feel more interested to read.
