A young, gay Private Investigator, Tony, from San Diego is asked by his boss to go undercover to investigate the mysterious death of a young man in northern California. What Tony didn't realize when he accepted the challenge was he would be undercover at a gay nudists resort outside of Sacramento. Not being a nudist himself, this presented more of a challenge than just the investigation itself. Tony manages to fit in with the group of gay nudists and starts to question the guests one by one without them becoming suspicious of him and his reason for being there at the resort. In the process, Tony makes some very special friendships and discovers he rather enjoys the nudist lifestyle. In the course of his investigation, one guest in particular caught his attention; possibly because he reminded him of a former boyfriend he still carried a torch for. The two manage to connect and have a steamy rendezvous in the wilderness. After solving the murder Tony realizes he has enjoyed his new found freedom in the nudist community and makes a decision to return to the resort the following year to re-connect with his new nudist friendships. In returning home to San Diego, to a hero's welcome, he sets out to rekindle the flame he once had with a former boyfriend. "You can read more of Tony's life in future books of the Tony Felice mystery series. Be sure to look for NAKED INNOCENCE due to be released on amazon.com soon!
