Counselor's Resource on Psychiatric Medications: Issues of Treatment and Referral (Counseling)

George Buelow, Suzanne Hebert

This resource book concentrates on the most commonly used drugs, their side effects and properties, an introductory text for anyone studying drugs in the treatment of mental illness. The authors present a concise and easily accessible introduction to the nature and uses of psychiatric drugs, treatment, and the referral issues that could influence a counselor's work with clients who are already using psychiatric medication or potentially should be.
