It's 1944 and as war rages across Europe tragedy touches the lives of individuals all over the continent. From the horrors of Auschwitz to the perils of the Blitz, civilians are being terrorised and intimidated as never before. But for many, it's only when peace is declared that the real fight for survival can begin. In The Jew from Lodz we follow the fates of Cliff, Aaron, and a host of other characters as they attempt to right their wrongs, escape the past, and find a future worth living. Spanning three decades, and several time zones, this action-packed tale of revenge and retribution is sure to set pulses racing and keep audiences guessing until the very last page.
