Musica e Dislessia: Aprire nuove porte (Italian Edition) T.R. Miles, John Westcombe

Al giorno d'oggi è ampiamente riconosciuto che la dislessia influisce sulla vita delle persone in tanti modi diversi.

Questo libro dimostra che alcuni dislessici possono essere musicisti molto dotati. È importante, tuttavia, che non venga loro impedito di studiare la musica solo perché, almeno nei primi tempi, molti di loro trovano difficile leggerla e ricordare i simboli della notazione musicale.

Dieci dei 21 autori del libro sono loro stessi dislessici e raccontano le proprie esperienze personali (alcuni come musicisti dilettanti, altri come professionisti) e in molti casi parlano di notevoli successi raggiunti. Gli altri autori sono insegnanti e ricercatori con grande esperienza di persone dislessiche di tutte le età. Il libro ci invia un messaggio di ottimismo. I musicisti dislessici possono arrivare al successo purché ricevano sufficiente incoraggiamento e comprensione.
