This collection of meditations arose from a series of sermons following Easter and serve as an invitation for all believers in the Church to personally embrace the Holy Spirit in order to move more closely and obediently with the Spirit's will. With a focus on the gifts and fruits of the Spirit, these sermons remind us of the importance of our relationship with the Paraclete—particularly how the Spirit is constantly directing us towards Jesus Christ in the way that we live out our lives, in our bodies here on the earth. Authentic Christian spirituality is an embodied spirituality and our physical lives are the terrain upon which God's rule and reign must begin.
