Sexual Health: 173 (Issues) Lisa Firth

Myths and misinformation about sexual matters are all too prevalent, especially among young people. ChildLine receives nearly 50 calls a day about sex, and the total number of diagnosed sexually transmitted infections in those aged 16 to 19 rose by 24% between 2003 and 2007. This title covers sexual relationships, risky sexual behaviour, the rise of STIs and the ways in which these can be prevented and treated. It also covers the debate surrounding the provision of sex education in schools. The information comes from a wide range of sources and includes government reports and statistics, newspaper reports, features, magazine articles and surveys, literature from lobby groups and charitable organisations.
